JEW BETRAYS FRANCE TO SOVIETS

Erno Gero Purged From Top Spot In Hungarian Soviet

BUDAPEST—Radio Budapest last month announced that Erno Gero, rated as the number-two man in the Hungarian Communist hierarchy, had been removed from his position as First Deputy Prime Minister of Hungary's red regime.

It is interesting to note that Erno Gero, a Jew, was originally a member of Bela Kun's (Cohen) bloody revolutionary government which seized control of Hungary in 1919. When Kun's Communist regime collapsed in that same year the Jews, Erno Gero, Matyas Rakosi and Zoltan Vas were among those who fled with him to the Soviet Union. Twenty-six years later Kun's Jewish lieutenants were destined to become the dictators of Hungary once more. . .

ERNO GERO

When the Communists "liberated" Hungary in 1945 and subsequently established a Communist government there, they placed the Jew, Matyas Rakosi at its head, with Erno Gero and Zoltan Vas occupying positions number two and three respectively. They have remained in control of Hungary ever since, much to the frustration of Zionist propagandists in this country, who have worked with considerable success to propagan-

Shown above (in black) is California's 26th Congressional District where Jimmy Roosevelt recently won the Democratic nomination despite the opposition of the Democratic National Committee. Jimmy's upset victory can be largely ascribed to the fact that the 26th District is an interracial conglomerate which takes in the Central Avenue Negro District on the east, and Hollywood's swank, Jew-infested Fairfax area on the west.

Success Story: Jimmy Roosevelt Wins in Jewish-Negro District

LOS ANGELES—Jimmy Roosevelt's odd victory in the recent California primary election, coming as it did on the heels of his much publicized divorce trial, has attracted considerable attention among political observers everywhere.

Interest in Jimmy's victory was heightened by the fact that the Democratic National Committee refused to endorse his candidacy or to have anything to do with his campaign. But despite party opposition and the ridicule heaped upon him by the opposition (sample item: "Send Jimmy to Washington, the wife you save may be your own") Roosevelt went on to take the Democratic primary by a substantial margin.

JIMMY ROOSEVELT

Actually, Jimmy Roosevelt's popularity with the voters of California's 26th Congressional District is not hard to explain once the facts are in. The first thing to remember is that Roosevelt's bailiwick has been gerrymandered into an interracial hodge-podge. The western arm of Roosevelt's district (see cut) takes in the swank Fairfax section of Hollywood, just to the west and south of the famed intersection of Hollywood and Vine. The population of this area is predominantly Jewish (i.e. 60% or over). The western arm also includes Culver City and Venice, likewise populated by large numbers of Jews. The eastern arm of the gerrymander, on the other hand, encompasses a large part of the teeming Central Avenue Negro district of Los Angeles. . .

A ROOSEVELT CUSTOM

This is not the first time a Roosevelt has gone into a cosmopolitan district to run for public office. In New York Franklin Roosevelt Jr. chose the polyglot 20th Congressional District to run from—although he had never previously resided there. He was elected, incidentally, as a

Treacherous Role Of Mendes-France At Geneva Scored

SPECIAL—Usually when a man betrays his country to an enemy he is looked upon as a traitor, and if the betrayal occurs during wartime he is a likely candidate for the firing squad. That, indeed, was the fate of the late Pierre Lavel, who was summarily executed at the end of World War II for allegedly having collaborated with the Germans.

MENDES-FRANCE

MOLOTOV

But last month when the Jew, Mendes-France, conspired with Soviet foreign-minister Molotov to betray France and the loyal natives of Viet Nam to Soviet Russia, he was hailed as something of a hero in France and—surprisingly enough—by large sections of the

Red Chess Team Invited To U.S. For Tournament

NEW YORK—A great deal of interest was aroused over the recent chess tournament held in New York between the U.S. team and the visiting Russian team. The event rated full press coverage, and Henry Luce's LIFE-TIME combination devoted considerable space (including a 3-page picture story in LIFE) to the affair.

Not everyone, of course, took such an open minded view toward this display of international amity. Some, including the families of G.I.'s butchered in Korean Communist death camps, might well have wondered why a Soviet chess team should journey to the U.S. at a time when U.S.-Soviet rela-

WASHINGTON

REP. FRANCES BOLTON, congresswoman from Ohio, is being smeared in the Jewish press from coast to coast as an "anti-Semite" because she recently criticized the state of Israel for having shipped strategic materials to Soviet Russia in violation of the Battle Act. The Battle Act forbids recipients of U.S. foreign aid from shipping strategic war materials to the Soviet Union.

JEWISH JACOB JAVITS has thus far been unable to get any action on two bills aimed at barring "anti-Semitic" publications from the mails, but he's still trying. His latest maneuver has been to submit a House resolution of inquiry to the Postal Department requesting specific information on ten "anti-Semitic" periodicals. Meanwhile, the Postal Department's Chief Solicitor, Abe Goff, has rendered a startling "decision" in which printed postal cards containing criticism of the late Rabbi Stephen Wise were barred from the mail. According to the Jewish Telegraph Agency, Goff admitted that so-called anti-Jewish publications, as such, could not be banned, but was quoted as saying that . . . "in view of the obvious intent to reflect injuriously upon the character of the individual named, this card was held to be non-mailable" . . . (NOTE: Rabbi Stephen Wise has been listed as a member or sponsor of more than a score of Communist-front groups by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. His son, James W. Wise, is cited as a member of at least 51 red-fronts. . .).

EMANUEL CELLER, the Jew congressman from Brooklyn, had a heart-rending confession to make before an anti-McCarthy rally recently sponsored by the American Jewish Congress in New York. Celler, according to the AMERICAN HEBREW, said his mail was running 3 to 1 in favor of McCarthy. . .

United Nations

✓IF AND WHEN the Soviet Union ever decides to accept the American-sponsored "Baruch Atom Plan", the United Nations will become the military dictator of the world. The Baruch plan calls for all nations to surrender their atomic weapons to the U.N. In that event the U.N., and only the U.N., could wage atomic warfare—which means the United States and every other nation would be helpless to resist world government.

Hollywood

JOAN DAVIS, star of the TV show, I MARRIED JOAN (NBC) acquired a brand new Yiddish son-in-law last month when her daughter, Beverly Wills, married Jewish Norton Grossman in a swank Beverly Hills ceremony. The rites, incidentally, were performed by a rabbi. Daughter Beverly plays a role in her mother's show.

VIVECA LINDFORS, whose press agents describe her as "Swedish-born", recently married playwrite George Tabori, who is listed on page 482 of the 1949 California Un-American Activities Committee Report as a sponsor of the Communist "World Peace Conference." Viveca Lindfors is the former wife of Jewish film director, Don Siegel.

LINDA DARNELL'S marriage to the Jew, Philip Liebmann, who heads the Rheingold beer firm, has been confirmed. They were secretly married last February.

ARTHUR GODFREY, who has nauseated millions of his viewers by featuring two buck Negroes in an interracial quartet regularly on his weekly telecast, is said to be laying plans for a new show with an entirely new cast for next season. Apparently the public is getting fed up with Godfrey's offensive little object lessons in interracial amity. Or maybe they're just getting fed up with Godfrey. . .

HARRY M. WARNER, the Polish-Jew who heads Warner Bros., Inc., has recently contributed . . . "five full-sized houses and a large quantity of farm equipment" to the Brandeis Camp Institute in Santa Susana (Calif.), according to the B'nai B'rith Messenger. Brandeis Camp, established in 1941, is a three square mile, 2,000 acre Zionist training camp where selected representatives from southern California's vast (350,000) Jewish colony go . . . "to learn to be better Jews" (i.e. fanatical Zionists).

LION FEUCHTWANGER, brother of film producer Walter Wanger, has received another Communist award—this time from East Berlin University. Feuchtwanger, now a resident of Pacific Palisades, entered this country as a refugee from Germany several years ago. . .

ROSEMARY CLOONEY, wife of the Yiddish film star, Jose Ferrer, is expecting a baby early next year, or so they say.

IF YOU ARE A TYPICAL GENTILE you may have noticed that Hollywood's Jew-controlled picture industry has ground out a goodly number of "biographical" films in recent years depicting the life stories of theatrical people. And if you are an unusually observant Gentile, you will also have noticed that virtually all of them have been about Jewish personalities. Among the Jews who have had their "life story" made into a film have been Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor, George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, Harry Houdini, Benny Fields, Milton Berle, Florenz Ziegfeld and Sol Hurok. Now Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, headed by the Russian Jew, Nickolas Schenck, has scheduled two more Jewish "biographicals". The soon to be released DEEP IN MY HEART (starring Jose Ferrer) is a screen glorification of the life of the Jew composer, Sigmund Romberg. M.G.M. has also purchased film rights to the late Eddy Duchin's life story, to be produced next year. Still in the planning stage is the film of Sophie Tucker's life, while M.G.M. is contemplating a sequel on the Romberg film. . .

AL JOLSON

THE FIRESTONE RUBBER CO., sponsors of the televised VOICE OF FIRESTONE (ABC) should get the very devil for the program they featured on July 5th. The show in question began with a medley of three patriotic tunes "in commemoration of Independence Day". The first was George M. Cohan's IT'S A GRAND OLD FLAG, followed by OVER THERE and GOD BLESS AMERICA. Now comes the payoff: as the orchestra swung into IT'S A GRAND OLD FLAG the camera rested momentarily on the American flag, then turned slowly to an array of flags representing the various members of the United Nations, coming to rest finally upon the United Nations flag itself . . . While we do not question the Firestone family's prerogative to glorify the U.N. all it wants on other occasions, we take the attitude that Independence Day is strictly an American show. And when the band strikes up IT'S A GRAND OLD FLAG, we expect to see the American flag, and ONLY the American flag, in the place of honor. The home office of the Firestone Rubber Co., in case you have any comment, is: 1200 Firestone Parkway, Akron 17, Ohio.

Report On The COLOR FRONT

✓THE TASK of "integrating" Negroes and whites in Washington D.C.'s public schools is proceeding rapidly. Last month the District's board of education voted: (1) to omit all racial identification from student records; (2) to rezone the District so as to achieve a more even distribution of Negroes and whites in each school; (3) to "integrate" Negro and white teaching staffs. Washington D.C.'s schools, where Negroes outnumber whites by a 6 to 4 ratio, has been designated by Eisenhower as a "pilot model" for the states to emulate.

✓THE N.A.A.C.P. reports that the Defense Department has already abolished state-operated schools at three Southern military bases because local school authorities still refuse to mix Negro and white students. The Pentagon is setting up "integrated" schools at Ft. Myer and Ft. Belvoir in Virginia, and at Craig Air Base in Alabama, for which "special" teachers are being hired. Altogether there are 19 military bases in 8 Southern states which are scheduled to be forcibly "integrated" under Eisenhower's orders.

✓IN NEW ORLEANS last month that great authority on the U.S. Constitution, visiting emperor Haile Salassie, described the Supreme Court's anti-segregation decision as . . . "in accord with the Constitution and one which would give the U.S. greater prestige in the world". (Note: the emperor could achieve the same result for Ethiopia by outlawing slavery there. . .)

✓IN FLORIDA six white civilian barbers were dismissed from the Elgin Air Force Base (reportedly on Pentagon orders) when they refused to cut a Negro's hair.

✓THE UNIVERSITY of Maryland, whose all-white football team has been under boycott from other colleges because of the University's refusal to admit Negro students, has agreed to admit colored students hereafter. Several schools (including Michigan State) had refused to schedule games with Maryland because of the race question.

✓THE U.S. ARMY has announced its "integration" program to be 98% complete, according to the Negro magazine, JET. At the same time the re-enlistment rate among white servicemen is so bad that special inducements are being offered those who stay in the service. White troops are disgusted with having to take orders from Negro sergeants, are also fed up with sharing their social and family recreational facilities with Africans. . .

American press. To some of his admirers Mendes-France had even become France's "man of destiny". Such was the reward for one of the lowest acts of treachery in French history.

The climax to Mendes-France's triumph obstensibly came a few hours after the July 20th deadline under which he had committed himself to end the Indo-China war or quit. Actually, however, the dramatic last minute negotiations leading up to the signing of the Geneva peace pact were little more than a staged farce, since the real sell-out was obviously arranged only a few days after Mendes-France assumed office.

The tip-off of Mendes-France's treachery came when he ordered the French Union forces to abandon the rich Red River delta region without a fight. By doing so he not only sealed the fate of Indo-China, but in the process callously betrayed some 2,500,000

The Goal: Mongrelization Unlimited!

Last year's queen presents royal cup to the new king. . .

The new king and queen pose together. . .

The promoters of racial mongrelization seldom reveal their true goal, but almost always hide behind a facade of piety—they profess to believe in "brotherhood" and "racial tolerance". If accused of advocating promiscuous contact between Negroes and whites, they will deny it. If reminded that non-segregation inevitably leads to miscegenation, they will ridicule the idea. Their prime interest, they will tell you (and many sincerely believe it) is to combat "unreasoning prejudice" and "narrow-minded bigotry". . .

And in California the proponents of racial "tolerance" and "brotherhood" have had their own way for a long time. They have, indeed, brain-washed an entire generation of young people with their race-mixing philosophy. The pictures above, taken at a college dance in Los Angeles, show the result. . .

Tolerance Propaganda Leads To Race-Mixing

LOS ANGELES—Each year the student-body at the tax-supported Los Angeles City College (LACC), largest junior college in the U.S., puts on a "Howdy Hop"—a dance to welcome new students into campus society. In recent years these affairs have to an increasing extent assumed an interracial flavor, and the spectacle of a buck Negro dancing with a white coed has become a commonplace occurrence. Last September the interracial motif reached a sort of apex when a white queen and a black "king" were selected to reign over the "Howdy Hop" (see cut).

This is by no means the only interracial king and queen to reign at Los Angeles City College. A couple of months ago (see American Nationalist, June 10) another white queen and Negro "king" were chosen to preside over the college's 25th Silver Anniversary celebration. On that occasion the program called for a cake-cutting ceremony in which the king and queen, with hands and arms intertwined, cut the anniversary cake as college officials looked on with beaming approval. . .

As is usual in such situations, the kept press censored both stories, and although there are five large metropolitan newspapers in Los Angeles, the public still remains totally ignorant of what is transpiring in the city's largest tax-supported school. Negro publications, however, featured the story (and pictures) with obvious relish. . .

Here, then, is the pattern which will inevitably be followed all over the nation as the Supreme Court's recent anti-segregation decree is put into effect. In the South, where most of the country's Negroes are concentrated, the process will undoubtedly be slower, but its effect will be all the more devastating in the long run.

Many people, and particularly those in the South, cannot bring themselves to believe that race-mixing on this scale will affect their own community — or their own children. But they underestimate the power of the forces arrayed against them.

In southern California, for example, a majority of the people are of Southern or mid-western origin. They unalterably oppose race-mixing. But their children are subjected to almost irresistable pressure in school, at church and (indirectly) from motion pictures, television and newspapers, to accept the tenents of racial "tolerance".

The schools are particularly effective in promoting racial "brotherhood". In civics, in history and other social studies the student is warned continuously against the crime of "prejudice"; in biology, anthropology and assorted other sciences he is repeatedly given scientific "proof" that all the races are equal and that "racism" is pure cant; in psychology he is even taught that those who oppose race-mixing are guilty of "scape-goating", and hence are mentally deranged. Even the pupil's English reading assignments are larded with "tolerance" propaganda. . .

As a point of fact the advocates of racial mongrelization aren't too interested in what you believe, so long as you remain quiescent. They are after your child, whose mind can be quietly moulded and shaped to their liking. And there is very little you can do about it.

If your children are sent to school with Negroes, and attend church with Negroes, and participate in sports and social activities with them, and are at the same time taught that racial "tolerance" and "brotherhood" is the only acceptable moral code, then they—and all children—will eventually behave as the students at Los Angeles City College are behaving.

The goal is unlimited mongrelization. The stage is set, the plans are made, the process has begun. All that is needed is a little time.

And just as race-mixing has come to Los Angeles, so it will come to your community, to your school, perhaps to your family. The Supreme Court of the United States has so decreed it. . .

Mendes-France

loyal Vietnamese to the tender mercy of the Communists. Included among these were more than 500,000 Christians, many of whom are special targets for Communist retribution because of their strong anti-Communist proclivities. So sudden and unexpected was the French withdrawal that only a handful of these people were able to escape before the Communist armies took over.

THE PEACE TERMS

Under the terms of the Geneva peace settlement the French turned over the richest part of Viet Nam and 12,000,000 of its people to the Communist victors. Theoretically the French will retain control of southern Indo-China (including Cambodia and Laos), but in point of fact their position there is probably untenable. It is highly unlikely that the remaining Vietnamese will risk their lives to preserve the French position in Indo-China after witnessing the treacherous withdrawal from the Red River delta and the abandonment of its population to the Communists.

That was the accomplishment of the little Jew who was elected on the promise of obtaining "an honorable peace within 30 days or else", and who is now being acclaimed as France's "man of destiny". . .

A JEWISH PEACE

Actually, of course, the terms of the Geneva peace settlement should surprise no one, since the entire proceeding was pretty much a Jewish affair from beginning to end. Molotov himself is married to a Jewish woman, and it should be remembered that the really important negotiations at Geneva were carried out between Molotov and Mendes-France — in private. Just how private they were can be gained from the following item, taken from the July 26th issue of TIME, which describes a meeting between the two a few days before the July 20th "deadline":

"Thursday night Mendes invited Molotov to dinner. After the meal the two men went out alone into the garden, where a huge map of Indo-China was spread on the table. Their advisors were left behind in the house; only two interpreters stood by. The two men leaned over the table, their faces lit eerily by a red-shaded lamp planted over the map. While Soviet secret service men padded invisibly at the bottom of the dark garden, the two men talked grimly until 1;30 a.m.". . .

SIGNIFICANCE: Despite his sell-out to the Soviets, it is likely that Mendes-France's popularity will continue to grow. There are a number of good reasons. For one, he is popular with the Communists. But far more important than that is his racial identity. In this connection it must be remembered that while the popularity and influence of a French Premier would ordinarily be confined to France, Mendes is not a Frenchman, but a Jew. That means he has millions of adherents and boosters in virtually every country in the world. And they can be depended upon to boost his stock and enhance his prestige at every opportunity. That is why, despite his treacherous role as a Judas goat at Geneva, he is being hailed in France and throughout the world for his "statesmanship" and "dynamic leadership". . .

Jimmy Roosevelt Wins

candidate for the Jew-controlled American Labor Party (ALP)—not as a Democrat.

It is in keeping with the best traditions of the Roosevelt family, therefore, that Jimmy Roosevelt should run for Congress in California's heterogeneous 26th District. And the fact that Jimmy has a juicy divorce scandal on his hands involving twelve or thirteen women makes little difference to the kind of people he represents.

That, in a nutshell, is why he walked away with the Democratic primary even after being repudiated by his own party—and after his divorce case had become a national joke.

Jimmy, you see, is a liberal. . .

Erno Gero Falls

dize Americans into believing that Communism is no longer a Jewish movement. . .

So far, no reason has been given for Erno Gero's fall from grace, but it is possible at least that he has been accused of Zionist activity — a criminal offense under Communism.

It isn't too widely known outside of Jewish circles but Russia's Zionist Jews and Communist Jews have been at loggerheads for many years. The Zionists, who render their first loyalty to Israel, are despised by their Marxist co-racists and drastic restrictions have from time to time been imposed on them in Soviet Russia (although they have at all times received preferential treatment compared to Gentiles.)

This internecine friction between Zionist and Marxist has apparently been intensified since the establishment of Israel in 1948, although it should be noted that Soviet Russia permitted some 300,000 Zionists from the Iron Curtain countries to emigrate to Israel between 1948 and 1950—a privilege never extended to Gentiles. Zionist emigration dropped off to a trickle after 1950, however, when the Communists initiated their big crackdown on Zionist activity. This most recent upsurge of anti-Zionism was widely, though mistakenly, interpreted in the U.S. and elsewhere as an "anti-Semitic" purge—a ludicrous assumption on the face of it, since the purge was carried out not only against Jews, but BY Jews as well.

The most publicized victim of the purge was the Jewish dictator of Czechoslovakia, Rudolph Slansky, who was accused of Zionist and Troskyite deviation and hanged. A short time later the Jewish dictator of Roumania, Anna Pauker, was removed from office on similar charges. This was followed by the arrest of the nine Jewish doctors in Moscow shortly before Stalin's death.

It was partially as a result of the Party's anti-Zionist campaign, and partially as a result of worldwide Zionist counter-activity, that relations between Israel and Soviet Russia were broken off for a time last year. Since then, however, the tension between Zionists and Communists has eased considerably; diplomatic relations have been resumed and trade agreements between Israel and the various Iron Curtain countries have been negotiated.

Nevertheless, the Communists seem to have continued their policy of weeding Zionists out of the Party apparatus—and in restricting their activities generally—as exemplified by the fact that some 150 Zionists are reported by the Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) to be under arrest in Roumania at the present time. This stepped up purge in Roumania at least suggests that Erno Gero's sudden removal from office may be the signal for a renewed anti-Zionist purge in neighboring Hungary as well. . .

CONCLUSION: The significance behind Erno Gero's fall from power remains obscure; he may or may not have been the victim of an anti-Zionist purge. But regardless of his fate, it is important to remember that Communist Hungary still remains a Jewish dictatorship. Its Communist government is entirely in Jewish hands, as are the governments of Poland, Roumania and Soviet Russia proper. And while it is the policy of the Communist hierarchy to purge those Jews whom they feel have betrayed the Party by adhering to Zionism (i.e. to the state of Israel), this should not be mistaken for "anti-Semitism". The purging of one faction of Jews by another Jewish faction does not, as the American Nationalist has frequently emphasized, constitute "anti-Semitism". . .

Press Report

TEL-AVIV—Israel has recently concluded another trade agreement with Soviet Russia calling for the delivery of approximately 30,000,000 gallons of Russian crude oil. In addition, Israel has already agreed to purchase 45,000,000 gallons of Soviet fuel oil, on which delivery is already in process. Concurrently the Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) reports that Communist Poland has signed a one-year trade agreement with Israel calling for the delivery of $250,000 worth of Communist-produced goods this year.

SAN FRANCISCO—Telford Taylor, one of the top U.S. prosecutors at the infamous Nuremberg "war crimes" trials, has again been retained as counsel by the west-coast Communist labor leader, Harry Bridges. Taylor, who recently made the news with a vicious anti-McCarthy tirade in a speech at the West Point academy, had previously argued Bridges' case before the Supreme Court in a successful move to block the government's attempt to deport Bridges to his native Australia.

PHILADELPHIA—The Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) reports that a survey conducted by the Philadelphia Jewish Community Relations Council shows that . . . "nearly 60 per cent of the colleges and professional schools of Pennsylvania still use application forms for student admissions which ask potentially discriminatory questions and request photographs of the applicants" . . . (NOTE: organized Jewry's definition of a "potentially discriminatory" application form is one which contains any query as to an applicant's place of birth, race or religion. And since a photograph would reveal the applicant's race, they class that as "potentially discriminatory" too. . .)

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The House has shelved the Hawaiian statehood bill for this session of Congress, although the issue will undoubtedly be brought up again next year. Objection to Hawaiian statehood centers around the fact that only 68,500 of the Islands' half-million inhabitants are white, and even fewer are of Hawaiian descent. Hawaii is populated mainly by Asiatics of Japanese, Chinese and Filipino origin.

SPECIAL—The following news item, which appeared recently in the Negro magazine, JET, provides a classic example of the type of abuse which law-abiding white citizens in many northern states are being subjected to by the aggressive and trouble-making NAACP. Gloated JET: "Band-leader Lionel Hampton and his wife, Gladys, supporting a Detroit NAACP drive against racial discrimination, led a group of bandsmen into the ritzy downtown Bar-X bar and grill and were served only after police were called in. When the Hampton crew walked in, the restaurant staff quit working, with the owner declaring: 'I don't want you guys in here. I'm not going to lose my white trade to make a few dollars from you'. When three police squad cars, two detective teams and a four-man police cruiser answered Hampton's call, a sergeant told the cafe owner: 'Serve them or I'll lock up the place right now'. The owner did". . .

Soviet Chess Game

tions are at a new low. And they might also be curious as to why the U.S. chess team should have been so anxious to engage in friendly competition with their Communist counterparts. Last week the answer to both questions was given in an article in the JEWISH EXAMINER written by Rabbi P. R. Alstat.

Wrote the good Rabbi: "The harshness of the cold war between the communist world and the free democracies seemed to have eased, at least in one place and for a short while. That was in recent days when the chess teams of Soviet Russia and of our own country met in peaceful competition at Hotel Roosevelt in New York City. From this clash over the boards, in which there was extreme nervous tension and yet without hostility, the Russian team emerged victorious. It should be noted, however, that while the members of the two teams were designated, according to their respective political allegiance, either as Russian or American, ethnically they were largely or predominantly Jewish".

SIGNIFICANCE: To invite a Soviet team to this country to play in a friendly tournament is an unheard of affront to the tens of thousands of American families who sacrificed a son in the Korean war against Communism; the very thought is repulsive to every patriotic American. For that reason alone it is obvious that the "American" chess team behaved in an extremely peculiar fashion in inviting the Russian team to New York.

As noted, however, the participants on both sides of the chess tournament were Jews. This fact explains a number of things. It explains first of all why the Soviet government was willing to permit its team to visit the U.S. It also explains why the "American" team was so willing to invite their Yiddish competitors over for a cordial little get-together. . .

Anyway, why should New York's Jews feel harshly toward the Communists? They didn't lose any sons in Korea. . .
